

The Devon and Exeter Institution

The Devon and Exeter Institution is a thriving independent library and educational charity in the heart of the city. Two galleried libraries hold a unique historical book collection, virtually unchanged since 1813, and collections of maps, prints, drawings, fine and decorative art.

Open: Tues-Fri 10am-5pm & Sat 10am-4pm.
Free public tours Weds 1pm-4pm.

Telephone: 01392 274727

www.devonandexeterinstitution.org

Exeter's Underground Passages

Exeter's Underground Passages were built to house the pipes that brought clean drinking water into medieval Exeter. A guided tour of Exeter's Underground Passages is a memorable event - narrow, dark, interesting and exciting. Visit the heritage centre before your guided tour, packed with interactive exhibits and interpretation.

These are the only passages of this kind open to the public in Britain!

Open: Thurs-Sun 11.00am-4.00pm (Last tour 3.00pm)
Closed 25th & 26th December

Telephone: 01392 665887

www.exeter.gov.uk/passages

Exeter's Red Coat Guides

A variety of FREE walking tours. Each tour focuses on a different aspect of Exeter's long and varied history. Tours available everyday throughout the year (except Christmas Day & Boxing Day)

No booking required

www.exeter.gov.uk/guidedtours

Find out more about what to see and do, and where to stay in Exeter on the Visit Exeter website or free Visit Exeter App. With suggested itineraries, event listings and a handy map and guide to download, it has everything you need for your visit to Exeter.

www.visitexeter.com

Please tell us if you would like a copy of this document in another format. Please contact 01392 265209

Discover one of the oldest, and most beautiful cities in England.

Historic Exeter

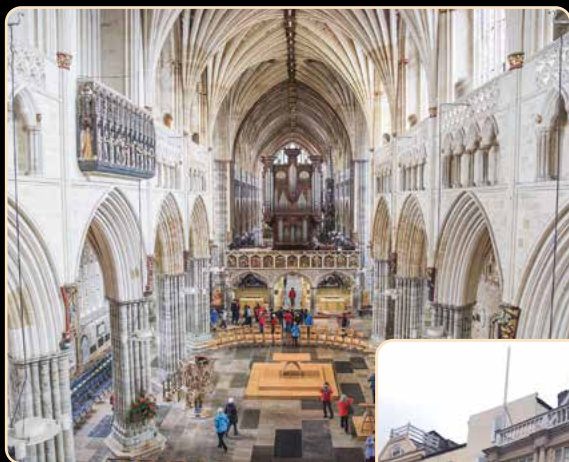

Exeter Cathedral

Step inside Exeter Cathedral and discover one thousand years of wonder. Immerse yourself in the awe-inspiring beauty of one of Europe's most magnificent cathedrals and find endless opportunities to explore its amazing architecture, clandestine corners and hidden histories.

Open: Mon-Sat 9am-5pm & Sun 11:30am-4pm

Visitor helpline: 01392 285983
www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Exeter's Historic Guildhall

A building of outstanding architectural interest, an ancient monument and a busy working building. It is still used regularly for civic functions, full meetings of the City Council, official receptions, mayoral banquets and exhibitions.

Open: Mon-Fri 10.30am-4pm & Sat 10.30am-1pm
(unless there is an event - please check website before visiting.)

Telephone: 01392 665500
www.exeter.gov.uk/guildhall

Royal Albert Memorial Museum & Art Gallery

RAMM's stunning displays reveal Devon and Exeter's rich history and global connections, from prehistory to the present day. Exotic animals, birds and insects delight children and a busy programme of exhibitions and events means there is something different to see on every visit. Fifteen galleries, awesome objects from around the world, intriguing stories and fun hands-on things to do, along with a cafe and shop, make for an unforgettable experience.

Open: Tues-Sun, daily 10am-5pm

Telephone: 01392 265858
www.rammuseum.org.uk

St Nicholas Priory

St Nicholas Priory is a grade I listed property situated just off Fore Street, it is one of Exeter's hidden treasures. The building, now interpreted as an Elizabethan town house, was one of the four wings which enclosed the cloister of a medieval monastery. It has a claim to being the oldest standing building in Devon. Visit the website for performance and events programme.

Open: Sun 1pm-4pm

Telephone: 01392 276255
www.nicholaspriory.com

Tuckers Hall

For almost 600 years this ancient hall has been the home of the Incorporation of Weavers, Fullers and Shearmen, one of the historic craft guilds of Exeter who oversaw the cloth industry within the city. A real gem of a building with a 15th century timber roof and Jacobean panelling.

Open: Thurs & Sat 10.30am-1.00pm

Telephone: 01392 412348
www.tuckershall.org.uk

Custom House Visitor Centre

The Custom House was built in 1680 at the height of Exeter's woollen cloth industry. Today it is a fascinating visitor centre that brings the development of Exeter's Historic Quay to life. Throughout the year there is a varied programme of activities and events.

Open: April-October: daily 10am-5pm
November-March: Thurs-Sun 11am-4pm

Telephone: 01392 271611
www.exeter.gov.uk/customhouse