

WELCOME TO EXETER

Exeter is the perfect destination for your next group visit. Whether your group is interested in shopping, heritage and culture, the outdoors, or food and drink, we have it all!

Exeter is the regional capital for culture, leisure and shopping. With over 2000 years of history, there are some fascinating attractions, including the magnificent Exeter Cathedral, the unique Underground Passages and the world class Royal Albert Memorial Museum. Historically a major port, the city's quayside area is now focused towards leisure, with a number of cafes and restaurants where your group can relax and enjoy a traditional cream tea!

Planning a group Christmas shopping trip to Exeter? There are hundreds of shops, both high street and independents where you can get that extra special Christmas gift, or head to the annual Exeter Christmas Market on Cathedral Green to soak up the festive atmosphere.
