

Hen Weekend

Itinerary

visit exeter

Exeter's location on the River Exe and surrounded by miles of Devon countryside means there are plenty of opportunities for adventure and relaxation here. Whether you're looking for a pampering weekend of escapism, or full-on adrenaline-fuelled fun, Exeter is the ideal destination for a UK hen weekend.

Day 1:

9am

Kick off an adventure-filled day at Exeter Quayside. Head to Saddles and Paddles to hire a paddleboard, kayak or canoe, then take to the water and put your balance to the test as you paddle your way along the River Exe, taking in the scenery from a whole new perspective.

Day 1:

12noon

Take a well-deserved break for lunch at either Crave or Browns in Exeter. Enjoy delicious food, plenty of drinks and a chance to catch up before getting ready for evening.

4pm

Bring the group together for some friendly competition at Board, a board game café which has over 300 games to choose from, or join forces on the GO Quest Trail, a city-wide treasure hunt packed with puzzles, challenges and plenty of opportunities to discover Exeter along the way.

Day 1:

6pm

Take your pick for dinner and enjoy a range of delicious dining options across Exeter. From relaxed eateries to a variety of places to eat at Princesshay and Guildhall Shopping Centre, there's something for everyone.

8pm

Start with drinks and rooftop views at Ludo Sports Bar or Becketts, then keep the celebrations going at one of Exeter's historic pubs, such as the Turks Head or Old Firehouse!

Day 2:

9am

Start your day with a coffee and a light bite at Arrietty, a cosy spot in the heart of Exeter. It's the perfect place to grab a morning pick-me-up before heading out for a day of hen-do fun.

11am

Take a moment to relax, unwind and enjoy some well-deserved pampering at a selection of exceptional spas across the city. From the tranquil surroundings of The Spa at St Sidwell's Point, to The Retreat Spa at Hotel Indigo and the elegant facilities at Hotel du Vin, there are plenty of opportunities to switch off, recharge and indulge in a little relaxation.

Day 2:

1pm

Make a stop at Pho, in Guildhall Shopping Centre for lunch and try out a range of delicious healthy, and authentically prepared Vietnamese food!

2pm

Get outdoors and make the most of your hen-weekend with a choice of exciting activities. Head to Haldon Forest and take on the treetop challenges at Go Ape, or soak up the atmosphere at Exeter Racecourse for an action-packed day of racing and entertainment.

Day 2:

6pm

Head to Dottie's for a relaxed meal or enjoy the lively atmosphere at Turk's Head, with plenty of good food and drinks to keep the celebrations going.

8pm

Catch a show during your Exeter getaway and experience the city's vibrant theatre and arts scene. Choose from venues including the Cygnet Theatre, Exeter Northcott Theatre and Exeter Corn Exchange, with a variety of performances and events to enjoy.

For further Hen weekend inspiration go to:
www.visitexeter.com/groups

visitexeter.com

visit exeter