

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS 2017

A unique opportunity to visit, free of charge, some of Exeter's most interesting and unusual historical sites and buildings.

ABOUT HERITAGE OPEN DAYS

Heritage Open Days celebrates England's architecture and culture by offering free access to properties that usually charge for admission or are not normally open to the public. This year the event celebrates its 23rd year.

It is a once a year chance to discover hidden architectural treasures and enjoy a wide range of tours, events and activities which bring local history and culture to life.

The event is managed nationally by the National Trust with financial support from the People Postcode Lottery and Historic England. It is England's biggest and most popular voluntary cultural event. Last year the event attracted over 3 million visitors.

Listed throughout this brochure are all the properties and events in Exeter's Heritage Open Days 2017. Use the number to locate an event on the map. Details of opening days and times and information about booking are given in the description.

Talks at 11.00 am, 12noon and 1pm

A 15th century chapel converted to a meeting hall in the 16th century. It is the only surviving trades guild in Exeter, home of Exeter's guild of 'Weavers, Fullers and Shearmen'. Inside see the oak panelled walls dating from the 17th century and the original fine wagon roof. Visit the new heritage centre.

For information, call 01392 412348

19. 21 The Mint – Off Fore Street

Thursday 7 – Sunday 10 September | 11am – 4pm

21 The Mint includes many historic features, including Norman stonework, a superb 15th century oak arch-braced roof, and ornate Tudor panelling. The cloister garden is a delight; an opportunity to escape from the bustling city centre to the tranquillity of this ancient monastic building. Stewards will be on hand to welcome visitors and to tell the story of the Priory from its foundation in the 11th century, on the orders of William the Conqueror, up to the present day. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

For Information call, 01392 436000

20. Exeter Guildhall – High Street

Thursday 7 – Sunday 10 September | 10.30am – 4pm

The Guildhall has served as the centrepiece of Exeter's civic life for more than 800 years. It remains a busy working building, still in use for civic functions and city council meetings. Civic regalia and city silver on display.

For information call 01392 665500

21. St Nicholas Priory – The Mint, Fore Street

Thursday 7 – Sunday 10 September | 11am – 4pm

This year we have the rare opportunity of opening both the surviving ranges of St. Nicholas Priory to the public. In addition to our normal guided tours of the North/Refectory Wing (21 The Mint), we will be including the West/Guest Wing of this important Medieval Priory which has been closed for several years. There is much to see in the West Wing, including a large Tudor Kitchen, Parlour, stone-pillared Cellar and a Chamber above the Parlour. Devon Archaeological Society will be in the Cellar to talk to visitors. A selection of reproduction costumes will be available to try on.

22. Exeter Livestock Centre

Friday 8 September | 9.30am and 11.30am
